

The Student Millionaire Minute #3 of 10 – Your Goal

A Goal can be anything from graduating from High School to going to college. Regardless of your Goal and the direction you choose to go in life, why not at least think about making one of your goals becoming a Millionaire?

Just by thinking about becoming a Millionaire, you open your life and your mind to a whole new world of possibilities that you probably have never before imagined.

Whatever your Goal, it's important to be as specific about it as possible. Thinking about it helps you focus your thoughts on achieving that goal. And since your thoughts pretty much direct your life, why not add achieving your first million dollars to your list of goals in life?

How different your life might be if you were a Millionaire? What would you do? Where would you go? More importantly, who would you help?

Just start thinking about it, and notice how your life starts to change because of it.
